CITY ORDINANCE NO. 30- (2025)

AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING THE “ANTI-CYBERCRIME AND MENTAL WELLNESS PROGRAM” OF THE CITY OF BIÑAN, CREATING A LOCAL CYBER WELLNESS TASK FORCE, PROVIDING PENALTIES FOR ONLINE HARASSMENT, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Principal Authors: Hon. Jonalina R. Reyes and Hon. Alexis H. Desuasido

Co-authors: Hon. Christopher A. Alba, Hon. Rommel R. Dicdican,
Hon. Libunero O. Alatiit, Hon. Donna Angela P. Yatco, Hon. Joselle Titus V. Bautista,
Hon. Elmario B. Dimaranan, Hon. Geminiano B. Catalon, Hon. Victor L. Cariño

WHEREAS, Article II, Section 11 of the 1987 Philippine Constitution provides that the State values the dignity of every human person and guarantees full respect for human rights;

WHEREAS, Article II, Section 13 of the same Constitution recognizes the vital role of the youth in nation-building and mandates the State to promote and protect their well-being;

WHEREAS, Article II, Section 15 of the Constitution declares that the State shall protect and promote the right to health of the people and instill health consciousness among them;

WHEREAS, Section 16 of Republic Act No. 7160, otherwise known as the Local Government Code of 1991, empowers every local government unit to promote the general welfare of its constituents;

WHEREAS, Republic Act No. 10627, known as the Anti-Bullying Act of 2013, includes cyberbullying among the acts of bullying that must be prevented and penalized within school settings;

WHEREAS, Republic Act No. 11036, or the Mental Health Act, ensures the right of every Filipino citizen to mental health care, and mandates the State to integrate mental health services in all levels of government;

WHEREAS, the City Government of Biñan recognizes that the rapid growth of digital communication and social media has given rise to harmful behaviors such as cyberbullying, online shaming, and trolling;

WHEREAS, there is an urgent need to institutionalize preventive education, mental health awareness, and responsive mechanisms to combat cyberbullying and protect the psychological well-being of Biñanenses;

NOW THEREFORE, be it ordained by the Sangguniang Panlungsod ng Biñan, Laguna, in session assembled:

SECTION 1. TITLE - This Ordinance shall be known as the “Anti-Cyberbullying and Mental Wellness Ordinance of the City of Biñan.”

SECTION 2. DECLARATION OF POLICY - It is the declared policy of the City Government of Biñan to uphold the dignity and mental well-being of every citizen, to foster responsible digital citizenship, to prevent acts of cyberbullying, and to provide accessible mental health support services for victims and at-risk individuals.

SECTION 3. DEFINITION OF TERMS.

- 14.2 Mobilize youth, parents, and community volunteers for awareness activities, including Cyber Wellness Week.
- 14.3 Lead or co-develop values-based programs on digital etiquette and responsible online behavior.

SECTION 6. PROGRAM COMPONENTS - The Cyber Wellness Program shall include, but not be limited to, the following major components:

- a. Cyber Wellness Week - A week-long annual observance dedicated to promoting kindness, empathy, and responsible use of social media among Biñanenses. Led by the Cyber Wellness Task Force (CWTF) in partnership with DepEd Biñan, CSWD, and SK Federation, this program aims to raise public awareness about the emotional and mental health impact of online behavior.

Example Activities:

- Launch "Be Kind Online" campaign through posters & social media challenges.
- Youth forums and lectures on digital citizenship and mental health resilience.
- Cyber Wellness awards for schools, barangays, or citizens promoting positive online engagement.

- b. School-Based Seminars - Regular seminars, orientations, and workshops conducted in public and private schools focusing on digital safety, online ethics, and emotional well-being. These shall be integrated into guidance and counseling programs with DepEd Biñan and the City Health Office.

Example Activities:

- "Safe Surfing 101" seminars for students.
- "Online Empathy: The Power of Words" talks for parents and teachers.
- Poster design contests promoting anti-cyberbullying messages.
- Peer-led "Digital Peer Counselors" programs in senior high schools.

- c. Barangay Information Drives - Community-based awareness programs designed to reach residents outside school environments. Barangay officials, SK leaders, and barangay health workers shall serve as local champions for responsible internet use and mental health education.

Example Activities:

- Barangay assemblies discussing cyberbullying prevention & online scam awareness.
- Pulong-pulong/Meeting style talks in partnership with the City ICT Office.
- Barangay "Cyber Wellness Corners" with QR codes linking to reporting platforms.

- d. Counseling and Support Services - The City Health Office and City Social Welfare and Development Office (CSWD) shall provide confidential psychosocial support to victims and offenders. This program promotes healing, behavioral correction, and reintegration through counseling and psychological first aid.

Example Activities:

- Establishment of a Cyber Wellness Help Desk or hotline within the CSWD.
- Psychological first aid training for guidance counselors and barangay health workers.
- One-on-one or group therapy sessions for victims and at-risk youth.
- Internship collaboration with local universities in psychology and counseling.

- e. Digital Etiquette and Responsible Use Campaign - An ongoing educational campaign emphasizing the ethical and mindful use of technology and social media. It shall encourage Biñanenses to reflect on the impact of their online words and actions.

Example Activities:

- “Think Before You Click” campaign with local influencers and youth ambassadors.
- Posting of Digital Etiquette Guidelines in schools, barangay halls, and offices.
- Monthly city information features on positive digital citizenship.
- Recognition of “Cyber Wellness Champions” from various sectors.

- f. Research and Policy Development - The CWTF may conduct annual surveys and policy studies to measure the prevalence of cyberbullying and its psychological impact. Findings shall guide evidence-based policymaking and program refinement.

Example Activities:

- Submit Annual “State of Cyber Wellness in Biñan Report”
- Collaboration with PUP-Biñan and other schools for research and data analysis.
- Policy dialogues on emerging digital risks.

SECTION 7. PROHIBITED ACTS - The following acts, when committed through electronic or digital means including but not limited to social media platforms, messaging applications, email, or online forums, are hereby declared prohibited within the territorial jurisdiction of the City of Biñan. These acts constitute forms of cyberbullying, online harassment, or digital misconduct that threaten public order, mental health, and individual dignity.

- A. Posting or Sharing Defamatory or Malicious Content - Refers to the act of creating, uploading, posting, commenting, forwarding, or sharing any false, derogatory, insulting, or humiliating information, image, or video against another person, which causes or is likely to cause emotional distress, mental anguish, fear, or damage to reputation.

Examples include:

1. Spreading rumors, slander, or libelous statements online.
2. Uploading edited photos or videos meant to humiliate.
3. Public shaming or name-calling in posts or group chats.
4. Using memes or hashtags to insult or demean individuals.

Reference: RA10175 (Cybercrime Prevention Act) – Online Libel & Defamation.

- B. Impersonation, Identity Theft, or Creation of Fake Accounts - Refers to the unauthorized use of another person’s name, photograph, or personal information to create a fake social media profile or online account with intent to deceive, defraud, harass, or cause harm to that person’s reputation or well-being.

Examples include:

1. Creating a fake or parody account using another person’s name or photo without consent.
2. Hacking or accessing another person’s account to send malicious messages.
3. Using another person’s identity to spread false information or solicit money.
4. Impersonating public officials or institutions for fraudulent purposes.

Reference: RA 10175, Sec. 4(b)(3) – Computer-related Identity Theft.

Threats, Intimidation, or Online Harassment - Refers to the use of electronic communications to threaten, coerce, bully, or repeatedly harass another person, whether publicly or privately, in a manner that causes fear, anxiety, or humiliation.

Examples include:

1. Sending threatening, obscene, or abusive messages through chat or comments.
2. Stalking or repeatedly messaging someone against their will.
3. Posting or sharing content that pressures or intimidates a person.
4. Coordinating online harassment where multiple users attack a single individual.

Reference: RA 10175 and RA 11313 (Safe Spaces Act).

C. Encouraging, Provoking, or Abetting Others to Cause Harm Online - Refers to the act of instigating, promoting, or coordinating any online behavior that directly or indirectly causes physical, psychological, or reputational harm to an individual.

Examples include:

1. Encouraging others to post hateful or derogatory comments.
2. Organizing or supporting cancel culture campaigns that destroy reputations without due process.
3. Posting or commenting messages that provoke self-harm or violence.
4. Publicly revealing personal information ('doxxing') to endanger a person's safety or dignity.

Reference: RA 7610 (Child Protection Act), RA 9262 (VAWC), RA 11313 (Safe Spaces Act).

D. Unauthorized Disclosure of Private or Sensitive Information - Refers to the act of publicly sharing personal data, images, or videos of another individual without consent, especially if intended to shame, embarrass, or harm.

Examples include:

1. Posting private chat screenshots, photos, or videos without consent.
2. Revealing addresses, phone numbers, or confidential details ('doxxing').
3. Sharing sensitive materials of minors or women in violation of privacy laws.

Reference: RA 10173 (Data Privacy Act) and RA 10175 (Cybercrime Prevention Act).

E. Discriminatory or Hate-Based Online Conduct - Refers to any online act that demeans or insults a person or group based on gender, race, religion, disability, political belief, or social status, with intent to ridicule or ostracize.

Examples include:

1. Posting or commenting hate speech or discriminatory remarks online.
2. Creating memes or images mocking marginalized groups.
3. Using slurs or language that promotes prejudice or exclusion.

Reference: RA 11313 (Safe Spaces Act) and 1987 Constitution, Article II, Section 11.

F. Unauthorized Use of Personal Information for Fraudulent Deliveries - It shall be unlawful for any person to use, misrepresent, or input the personal information of another individual — including but not limited to their name, mobile number, home or office address, social media details, or any identifier — for the purpose of placing unauthorized online orders, booking delivery services, food delivery, courier shipments, transportation services, parcels, or other digital transactions without the knowledge or consent of the individual, thereby causing:

- harassment or intimidation;
- embarrassment or reputational harm;
- disturbance to the victim's home or workplace;
- financial loss or attempted extortion; or
- repeated unwanted deliveries designed to harass, retaliate, or prank the individual.

This prohibited act includes causing delivery riders to repeatedly proceed to the victim's residence or workplace through fraudulent bookings.

This conduct may constitute violations of:

Republic Act No. 10173 (Data Privacy Act of 2012);
Republic Act No. 10175 (Cybercrime Prevention Act of 2012);
Republic Act No. 7394 (Consumer Act of the Philippines);
Republic Act No. 8792 (E-Commerce Act).

G. Creating, publishing, or disseminating fake news via digital platforms

This includes the intentional creation, publication, or distribution of false, misleading, or fabricated information through social media, messaging apps, websites, or any digital medium when such content may:

- Threaten public safety or order;
- Cause panic, hate speech, or social division;
- Harm the reputation of individuals, organizations, or institutions without verified basis.

H. Operating anonymous social media accounts for malicious purposes

This includes maintaining, administering, or coordinating anonymous, pseudonymous, or unverified accounts or pages that primarily:

- Share disinformation;
- Attack, defame, or harass individuals without due process or factual verification;
- Promote coordinated inauthentic behavior designed to mislead or deceive the public.

I. Spreading deepfakes, manipulated media, or impersonation of public officials

This covers the creation, distribution, or use of digitally altered images, audio, or video—including deepfakes—that maliciously impersonate any person, especially public officials, for the purpose of fraud, harassment, political manipulation, extortion, or spreading false information.

J. Cyberbullying and online harassment

This includes any form of online behavior that targets individuals—especially youth, women, and vulnerable groups—through intimidation, threats, humiliation, stalking, doxxing, insults, or repeated unwanted digital contact intended to cause emotional distress or harm.

Implementation Note: All acts under this section shall be subject to investigation and verification by the Cyber Wellness Task Force (CWTF), with due regard to the right to privacy, freedom of speech, and due process. Violations proven through documentation, screenshots, or sworn affidavits shall be referred to the City Legal Office or CSWD for appropriate action.

SECTION 8. PENALTIES - Pursuant to Section 458(a)(1)(vi) of Republic Act No. 7160, otherwise known as the Local Government Code of 1991, the Sangguniang Panlungsod of Biñan City is empowered to prescribe fines not exceeding Five Thousand Pesos (P5,000.00) or imprisonment not exceeding one (1) month, or both, at the discretion of the court, for violation of city ordinances enacted to promote the general welfare.

In accordance therewith, any person found violating any provision of this Ordinance, upon due process, shall be subject to the following graduated penalties:

A. First Offense: The offender shall be issued a written warning and shall be required to attend a Digital Responsibility and Cyber Wellness Seminar to be conducted by the Cyber Wellness Task Force (CWTF) within thirty (30) days from receipt of notice. Failure to attend said seminar shall constitute a second offense.

B. Second Offense: A fine of Three Thousand Pesos (P3,000.00) shall be imposed and/or community service for a period of not less than sixteen (16) hours to be supervised by the City Social Welfare and Development Office (CSWD).

C. Third and Subsequent Offenses: A fine of Five Thousand Pesos (P5,000.00) and/or imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty (30) days, or both, subject to the discretion of the proper court.

In all cases involving minors, the liability shall extend to the parents or guardians, who shall be required to attend counseling sessions and intervention programs facilitated by the CSWD. Restorative or educational measures shall take precedence over penal sanctions for juvenile offenders, in accordance with Republic Act No. 9344, otherwise known as the Juvenile Justice and Welfare Act of 2006.

The imposition of these penalties shall be without prejudice to the filing of appropriate criminal, civil, or administrative cases under Republic Act No. 10175 (Cybercrime Prevention Act of 2012), Republic Act No. 10627 (Anti-Bullying Act of 2013), and other applicable laws, when the act constitutes a separate offense under national legislation.

SECTION 9. IMPLEMENTING OFFICE - The implementation, monitoring, and enforcement of this Ordinance shall be jointly undertaken by the Cyber Wellness Task Force (CWTF) through the City ICT Office, the City Social Welfare and Development Office (CSWD), and the City Health Office (CHO), in coordination with the City Legal Office, the Philippine National Police (PNP), and the Department of Education – Biñan Division.

1. The CWTF shall serve as the primary coordinating body for:
 - 1.1 Receiving and verifying reports or complaints of violations under this Ordinance.
 - 1.2 Ensuring due process and confidentiality in the conduct of investigations.
 - 1.3 Referring verified cases to the proper agency or office, such as:

City Legal Office – for administrative or legal proceedings.

City Social Welfare and Development Office (CSWD) - for counseling or restorative interventions involving minors.

City Health Office – for mental health assessment and psychological support.

1.4 The City Information Communication & Technology Office shall assist in advocacy and public awareness campaigns, while the CWTF Secretariat shall maintain

1.5 a centralized database of reported cases and resolutions, subject to the provisions of the Data Privacy Act of 2012 (RA 10173).

SECTION 10. APPROPRIATION CLAUSE.

Funds shall be sourced from the annual budget of the City Government of Biñan under the City Health Office, CSWD, ICTO, or GAD Fund.

SECTION 11. SEPARABILITY CLAUSE.

If any provision is declared unconstitutional, the others remain valid.

SECTION 12. REPEALING CLAUSE.

All ordinances inconsistent herewith are repealed or modified accordingly.

SECTION 13. EFFECTIVITY CLAUSE.

This Ordinance shall take effect fifteen (15) days after publication in a newspaper of local circulation.

UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED.
